2, Compulsory retirement which has been ordered against the petitioner is a consequence of disciplinary proceedings and the employer's decision to impose it as punishment. Had it been a conscious decision of an employer to fall back to Rule 64 of the Railway (Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1968, in that eventuality, observance of each of the rules and procedure laid down in Rules was imperative, which has no application, it being the case of punitive compulsory retirement.

2. In this background,m no interference is called for.
